

AMA Credit Designation Statement

The following AMA Credit Designation Statement must be included in relevant announcement and activity materials: The <<name of accredited CME provider>> designates this <<learning format>> for a maximum of <<number of credits>> AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Use of phrase “AMA PRA Category 1 Credit[™]”

The phrase “AMA PRA Category 1 Credit” is a trademark of the American Medical Association. Accredited CME providers must always use the complete italicized, trademarked phrase. The phrase “Category 1 Credit” cannot be used when referring to AMA PRA Category 1 Credit[™].

Use of the AMA Credit Designation Statement in program materials and activity announcements

PROGRAM MATERIALS

The AMA Credit Designation Statement must be used in any program materials, in both print and electronic formats (e.g., a course syllabus, enduring material publication, landing page of an internet activity), that reference CME credit.

ACTIVITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

Activity announcements include all materials, in both print and electronic formats, that are designed to build awareness of the activity’s educational content among the target physician audience. The complete AMA Credit Designation Statement must always be used on any document or publication that references the number of AMA PRA Category 1 Credits[™] designated for the activity.

SAVE the DATE ANNOUNCEMENT

A “Save the date” announcement (such as a postal mailer with limited space) may indicate that the activity has been approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit[™] without stating an exact number of credits if the accredited CME provider has already certified the activity. This announcement may read, “This activity has been approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit[™]” or similar language. Accredited CME providers may never indicate that “AMA PRA Category 1 Credit[™] has been applied for” or any similar wording.
