

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
Regarding Potential Impacts to Historic and Cultural Resources
Lake County, Illinois

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a public hearing will be held to receive comments on a proposed project that may affect historic properties and cultural resources within Lake County, Illinois. The project is subject to review by the Illinois State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO) pursuant to relevant federal and state historic preservation laws and regulations.

Project Description

Project Description / Background:

The proposed project entails the development of up to 10 buildings, that include residential units and a clubhouse complex to be constructed on a 9-acre parcel of land located on the university's northern boundary. The housing development is designed to support military personnel, with particular emphasis on fulfilling the need identified by Naval Station Great Lakes for at least 285 beds for permanently assigned personnel working at the Captain James A. Lovell Federal Health Care Center.

As part of the environmental and historic preservation review process, the project has been evaluated to determine its potential effects on properties listed in or eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places.
